Important Youth Leadership Program with Kenya Dates

Due to the short duration of the Youth Leadership Program with Kenya, American Youth Leaders must be able to attend the full program. Please confirm that you are available to attend on all dates listed below. Students participating in spring sports will not be excused from the program for sports practices or meets. NNIC will work with your school to excuse any absences during the program dates.

- January 3-6: Three-night Lake Tahoe Leadership Programming – all meals and lodging included (orientation, introductions, project planning, and team building)
- Friday, January 6: 5:00pm-6:30pm Opening welcome event in Reno
- Monday, January 9: 3:30pm – 7:30pm – Team-Building Activity and Dinner
- Wednesday, January 11: 2:30pm – 7:30pm - Community Integration Activity and Cultural Activity with Dinner
- Monday, January 16 (MLK Day): 8:00am-5:00pm - Day of service and volunteering
- Tuesday, January 17: 3:00pm - 8:00pm - Program Closing Preparation and Closing Ceremony – your family is invited to join us for dinner as we celebrate the completion of the program
- January 18-21: Washington D.C. programming - all flights, meals, and lodging included

As participants in the program, American and Kenyan students will be taught the skills, and given the support, needed to plan an individual service project, which will be completed in the months following the program.
